

TURKEY'S NEW MINISTRY.

OFFICIAL LIST OF THE MEMBERS OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT.

Turkish Troops Said to Have Taken Part in the Massacre of Armenians at Erzerum and the Plundering of Houses—Reports from Americans on Disorders and Outrages in Various Parts of the Country—It Is Said Russia Will Send Troops into Armenia if the Outrages Continue.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 7.—The new Ministry was officially announced this afternoon. The list is as follows:

Said Pasha, President of the Council.
Abdullah Pasha, Minister of Justice.
Mehmed Pasha, Minister of the Interior.
Tevfik Pasha, Minister of Foreign Affairs.
Cemal Pasha, Minister of War.
Mehmed Pasha, Minister of Education.
Mehmed Pasha, Minister of Commerce and Industry.
Said Pasha, Minister of Finance.
Mehmed Pasha, Minister without Portfolio.

It has been announced that Halil Rifat Pasha, late Minister of the Interior, has been appointed Grand Vizier in place of Kiamil Pasha, dismissed; but neither his name nor that of the Sheikh-ul-Islam appears in the official list.

Trustworthy accounts from Erzerum say that Turkish regular troops took part in the recent massacre of Armenians there, and the plundering of their shops and houses. The condition of the Asiatic provinces, these reports say, is deplorable, and a veritable reign of terror prevails. Several servants of English merchants have been killed, and the British Post Office with English newspapers, which were confiscated.

The British squadron has been unable to obtain a sufficient supply of provisions at Lemnos and has been obliged to go to Salonica for that purpose.

In the representations made by the foreign diplomats to the Porte yesterday, special reference was made to the attacks upon Christians by Muslims, the Ambassadors intimating that unless such outrages were stopped the powers would take the matter into most serious consideration.

Said Pasha, Foreign Minister, promised to make a formal reply within two days. Such combined action on the part of the powers has not been taken in many years, and it is regarded as an intimation that Europe is determined to restore order in Turkey if the Porte is unable to do so.

Kiamil Pasha, who was deposed from the Grand Viceroyship, has been appointed Vali of Aleppo.

No change has been made in the office of the Sheikh-ul-Islam, the position still being retained by Djemaladdin Effendi.

Official despatches received at the Ministry of the Interior say that the authorities at Diarbakir had almost succeeded in suppressing the disorders there when the Armenians resumed the offensive and attacked the Muslims. They threw bombs and fired at the mosque, while the latter were calling the Mohammedans to prayer. The rioting was thereupon renewed, and fifty Muslims and eighty-five Armenians were killed.

The official despatches further say that a number of Armenians were killed in the Armenian Madrasa of Persia, attacked by the village of Tekouk Hissar, killing twelve Muslims.

IT MADE MR. LIVINGSTON HOT.

To Hear Government Officials Rejoice Over the Result of the Election.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Representative Livingston of Georgia is here to look after the interests of some of the exhibitors at the Atlanta Exhibition. He did not hesitate to speak his mind on the political situation, and he was very severe on those Democrats who are to-day rejoicing over the down-fall of the Democracy in Maryland, Kentucky, and the Democracy in Virginia.

"I had to go into some of the Government departments to-day," he said, "on business in which my constituents are interested, and it made me hot to see how delighted some of the prominent officers were over the result of the elections. They profess to be Democrats, too. Why, I saw several Government officials who were appointed to office as Democrats shouting themselves hoarse over the result in Maryland and Kentucky, declaring that the result was a vindication of President Cleveland. Such conduct may be all very well for the Mugwumps of the North and East, but it will not go with the Democrats of the South."

Mr. Livingston said that Mr. Cleveland alone is responsible for the mangled condition of the Democratic party to-day, and that the only hope for the party is to face the financial and tariff questions and try to unite the Mugwumps of the North and East, but it will not go with the Democrats of the South.

It is apparent to all who mingle in Administration circles that neither the President nor any of his followers is distressed over the result of the elections. Mr. Cleveland's friends are gladly announcing their belief that the opposition party bosses in the States to the south have been defeated, and that the cause of the house divided against itself and the house has fallen.

GUEST DIES AT A WEDDING.

EXPIRES IN ST. GEORGE'S JUST BEFORE THE CEREMONY BECAME.

She Was Mary J. Pomeroy, a Cousin of the Groom. H. B. Sedgwick—Remained to the Church Room and Her Death Kept Secret.

A wedding and the death of a wedding guest took place almost simultaneously in St. George's Church in Rutherford place yesterday afternoon. The wedding was that of Henry Dwight Sedgwick and Miss Sarah May Mintram. It was a fashionable wedding, and besides the many persons who were there to see it from this city there were also many guests from other parts of the country.

Among these was Miss Mary J. Pomeroy, a cousin of the bridegroom, who had come to the wedding from Stockbridge, Mass., where the Sedgwick family have had its seat since early in the century. Miss Pomeroy, who was accompanied by Miss Florence Pomeroy, a niece, arrived in this city yesterday morning and went to 82 Irving place to stay while in town. The wedding was to take place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and a good while before that hour Miss Pomeroy left the Irving place for the church. She was accompanied by Miss Florence Pomeroy, a niece.

Part of the church had been set apart for the members of the families of the bride and bridegroom, and these had been marked with white ribbons. In one of these pews—the fifth row from the chancel—Miss Pomeroy and her niece took seats and watched the gathering of the wedding guests.

The time for the wedding had nearly arrived, and the Rev. Dr. Hainsford and the Rev. Theodore Sedgwick, a brother of the bridegroom, were seated for the ceremony, when those persons who were seated in the pew in which Miss Pomeroy and her niece were seated fell forward in her. Miss Florence Pomeroy caught her, and Benoni Lockwood and his son, who was one of the ushers, ran to her assistance. Neither they nor any one else who saw the Pomeroy's collapse thought for a moment that it was worse than a fainting fit, as these are not uncommon at weddings, no one gave the matter much attention after Miss Pomeroy was removed from her pew.

Mr. Lockwood and several others carried the old lady into the choir room adjoining the church, where she lay for some time. There she was found at her home at 320 East Seventeenth street, just around the corner from the church, and brought in.

Before he arrived the wedding march was sounding and the wedding ceremony was begun. Dr. Hainsford saw at once that his patient was dead.

Nothing of this was told any of the wedding party or the guests, and the ceremony in the church was completed without their knowing that death had overtaken one of their guests.

As soon as possible after the ceremony Sexton Chapman took charge of the body, and a call to the Coroner's office brought Dr. O'Hanlon to the church. He decided that death was due to apoplexy, gave a certificate to that effect, and issued an order for the removal of the body. Mr. Chapman embalmed the body, and it was taken to Stockbridge this afternoon, where the funeral will be held.

SHOT DEAD BY ROBBERS.

AN UP-TOWN SALOON RAIDED BY MASKED MEN.

After Killing Richard Pope, a Customer Who Offered Resistance, the Robbers Stole $40 from the Money Drawer of the Saloon, and Escaped in the Darkness.

Three masked men went into the saloon of Thomas and Dick Walters, at the corner of Southern Boulevard and Brown place, at half-past 11 o'clock last night, and tried to hold up everybody in it. Dick Pope, one of the men in the saloon, started to show fight, and the masked men opened fire. Pope was shot through the breast and died almost instantly.

The saloon is at the northeast corner of Southern Boulevard and Brown place. Thomas Walters, one of the proprietors, was playing cards with Dick Manley, a contractor of 451 East 14th street, and Robert Kenny, a railroad watchman, employed in the yards just south of the saloon. Dick Pope was keeping the slate. The game was pinocle. The bar runs along the east side of the saloon. A lunch counter stands on the west side. The table at which the men were playing cards stands at the south end of the lunch counter. At the north end of the lunch counter is a side door opening into Brown place.

Will Gillen, the bartender, was busy at the lunch counter when the door opened, and a man put in his head. Thomas Walters looked up from the card table, and saw that a handkerchief, which was tied around the middle of his head below his eyes, in such a shape that it covered his nose and his mouth, but not his chin. Walters could see that the man was smooth shaven.

"After looking up the man at the door and noting that he was tied around the middle of his head below his eyes, in such a shape that it covered his nose and his mouth, but not his chin. Walters could see that the man was smooth shaven."

Walters turned to the other men at the card table and said:

"That's damned funny. That fellow had a handkerchief tied around his face."

Just then the side door, north of the lunch counter, opened, and the man who had started in at the front door came in. He was followed part way through the door by two others, masked as he was. All three carried big revolvers, which they leveled in front of them, and the man who was in the lead sang out:

"Put up your hands!"

All the men in the saloon were greatly frightened, and most of them complied, but Pope picked up a chair. Seeing this Manley cried out:

"Poke that fellow with the gun."

Pope, who was nearest to the man in the lead, took one step toward him, with the chair raised as if to strike him. At that, all three opened fire. Pope was hit at the first shot. He cried out:

"Dropping the chair, he staggered toward the little private room in the rear, where he fell. The two men who were but partly inside the saloon turned and ran. The other man who was in the lead, keeping the other men in the saloon, covered with his gun, and deliberately across the room and behind the bar. He pulled out the money drawer and took all the bills and what loose change he could get, scattering some of the change on the floor. Then he came out from behind the bar, and, looking back over his shoulder, he ran directly south across the Southern Boulevard into the railroad yards, in which he disappeared.

As soon as the men with the guns were out of the saloon the others started for help. They gathered up four or five policemen, and one of them went to the door of 705 East 13th street and went into the saloon. Mr. Donlon found that Pope was dead.

The bullet had hit him in the right breast and had passed out of the left side. Mr. Donlon said he must have died almost instantly.

One policeman ran to the Morrisania station and notified Capt. Creedon, who, with Roundsman Postoff, Detective Titus, and four others, went to the saloon as quickly as they could go.

They found out that Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show had come into the railroad yard last night after a bad season at Atlanta, and that the show had been closed up and was waiting for the train. They conjectured that the robbery possibly was committed by some of these men. Creedon and Titus took Manley and Walters and went through the show train, but Manley and Titus did not see anybody they thought looked like either of the men who had done the robbery. Creedon, however, saw the man who had run across the Southern Boulevard, and he could find no trace of the man who had run there.

The two men who went out of the side door ran up Brown place to 134th street and turned east to Third avenue, where they were also lost.

The saloon ceiling and bar were shot full of bullet holes.

A JUROR'S WIFE THE PRISONER.

Drunk Led to Her Arrest on a Charge of Larceny.

A young woman indicted as Mary King was before Judge Moore in the Court of Sessions, Brooklyn, for trial yesterday on a charge of grand larceny. One of the jurors called on the case, William A. Purcell, asked to be excused, and on being questioned admitted that the prisoner was his wife.

"I married her four years ago, your Honor," he said, his voice broken by emotion. "For several years we lived happily, but she began to drink, and she went from bad to worse. We parted a year ago, and this is the first time since then that I have seen her. She has since adopted this name of King."

The juror was excused. On the trial Mary King was acquitted. She had been charged with having robbed a man at Coney Island, and the evidence of her guilt was not conclusive.

MR. GROUT MAY CONTEST.

AND GAYNOR MAY LEAVE THE BENCH TO TAKE HIS CASE.

The Democratic Managers Say They Have Conclusive Evidence of Attempted Fraud—Many Mistakes in the Police Count Ballots Thrown Out as Defective.

The managers of the Democratic canvass in Brooklyn believe that Edward Marshall Groat was convicted by a fraudulent ballot count. They believe that a square count will show it, and they say they will get that count in the interests of the citizens of Brooklyn, irrespective of party, even if every ballot that was cast has to be recounted.

It was rumored last night in Brooklyn that Supreme Court Justice William J. Gaynor intended to resign from the bench for the purpose of acting as counsel to his old law partner, Mr. Groat, in case there shall be a conflict in the courts. This rumor could not be verified last night. Judge Gaynor positively declined to discuss the matter.

But it was learned on good authority that if it should become necessary to make a legal fight for Mr. Groat in the Supreme Court, Judge Gaynor would resign. Such a fight may not be necessary, however.

There is no denial now that the figures at Police Headquarters were juggled with. This discovery led to the cry of fraud by Mr. Groat's friends, who started an investigation. They learned enough to make them believe that a deliberate attempt had been made to defraud the voters by means of a fraud known to the Law Committee of the Democratic party, and who, it is alleged, instructed certain Republican canvassers to throw out as defective all the Groat ballots that they possibly could.

In cases where pencil marks made by a careless citizen extended into and through the circle, the ballots were thrown out as defective. Others were rejected because the cross was not made by straight marks, one of the marks being curved. Others were thrown out because the cross was not made by straight marks, one of the marks being curved. Others were thrown out because the cross was not made by straight marks, one of the marks being curved.

Then there were cases where the voter's intention was disregarded. Republican tickets marked with crosses in front of the candidates' names all the way down the ticket, except the name of Wurster, were counted as votes for Wurster. All these things were discovered yesterday and on Wednesday by the Democratic Law Committee.

The officials who are tabulating the figures are now being closely watched. These officials have seven more wards to go over to-day the police figures of the Sixth ward showed in Groat's favor eight more than the police gave out the day before.

The returns from one district in the Fifth ward the police claim are missing. In the Fifth ward the police claim are missing. In the Fifth ward the police claim are missing. In the Fifth ward the police claim are missing.

The police first announced that Samuel Madoff, the Republican candidate for surrogate, had been elected by a majority of 100 votes. They say that Judge Abbott, the Democratic candidate, has been elected by a majority of 100 votes. The returns from many districts are still missing from Police Headquarters, and taken from the returns of the districts in which they have been the biggest bungling job ever seen in Brooklyn.

Yesterday, when Wurster claimed that he was elected by over 2,000, Mr. Groat gave out this statement:

"When I am satisfied that Mr. Wurster is honestly elected I shall be the first to congratulate him. But until I am satisfied that he has been elected I will not do so. I have had evidence of mistakes which would reduce his apparent plurality to a matter of hundreds. I have had evidence of mistakes which would reduce his apparent plurality to a matter of hundreds. I have had evidence of mistakes which would reduce his apparent plurality to a matter of hundreds."

Mr. Groat was at the Democratic headquarters on the Thursday night, and he was there when the returns were being counted. He was there when the returns were being counted. He was there when the returns were being counted.

When the returns were being counted, Mr. Groat was at the Democratic headquarters. He was there when the returns were being counted. He was there when the returns were being counted.

When the returns were being counted, Mr. Groat was at the Democratic headquarters. He was there when the returns were being counted. He was there when the returns were being counted.

THE MAYOR'S LINGUISTS.

A Learned French Deaf Mute Calls, and Finds Translators Ready.
